Tragedy -- Disco Metal mayhem! now booking festivals and tour dates for 2026

"An undisputed smash at festivals everywhere, Tragedy are undeniably entertaining in the flesh; their heavy metal reworkings of pop and disco hits so well executed that resistance is generally useless." Blabbermouth

Tragedy had a wild run of touring and festivals in 2025 in North America and Europe. We're taking the glitter and spandex to new levels of insanity in 2026!

"a heavy-metal, glitter-soaked, falsetto-flinging monster that defies explanation...it's pure catharsis, a glam-metal fever dream that leaves you grinning, sweating, and wondering what just happened. One of the most joyfully deranged nights you'll find." - One4Review

"Hellariously fun...bringing disco back by the glitter balls" - Metal Injection

Summer Nights - Live from the Black Country

Tragedy consistently tours North America, UK & continental Europe, having toured with Steel Panther, The Night Flight Orchestra, Nanowar of Steel and Electric Six. Tragedy has rocked stages of acclaimed events such as SXSW (US), CMJ (US), Musikfest (US), Bloodstock (UK), Rebellion (UK), Summer Breeze (DE), Foudrock (FR), Motocultor (FR), ParkPop (BE), Glastonbudget (UK), Legends of Rock (UK), Belladrum (UK) and Hammerfest/Hard Rock Hell (UK), Wacken (DE), Full Rewind (DE), Y Not (UK), Tramlines (UK), Edinburgh Fringe (UK), Lindisfarne (UK), Full Metal Holiday (ES), Rockharz (DE), Beat Herder (UK), Rock n Ribs (UK).

In 2021, Tragedy signed a worldwide record deal with Napalm Records. The first album with Napalm was Disco Balls to the Wall, released July 2021. It hit the top 10 in Hard Rock/Metal charts in Europe and the US. I Am Woman was released in March 2023, with six consecutive weeks on the NACC top 20.
